

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

In Burlington there are 4,657 children between the ages of six and 18 years, 2,225 being boys and 2,434 girls.

C. S. Vandewater of Burlington, Va., aged 82 years, has been visiting in Benson and took out a fishing license, enjoying the sport like a boy.

Miss Olive Crooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Crooks of Brandon, who disappeared after attending church last Sunday, has been located in Springfield, Mass.

Fred Esty, a former Orleans man, was electrocuted Monday while working for the Cambridge Electric Light Co. of Boston. He was 31 years old and served 10 months overseas.

On the Boston & Maine railroad, near Newport, Monday, the fifth car from the rear of a train of 45 freight cars left the rails and fell into a lake just over the Canadian line. The car contained lumber.

A half-interest in the Morrisville Messenger has been sold by the owner, Lewis P. Thayer, to T. H. Stoppel, for the past year connected with the paper. The business will be continued under the name of the Messenger-Sentinel company.

During an electrical and wind storm in Brattleboro Tuesday noon, seven trees were blown down, two telephone poles and about a mile of wire between Brattleboro and Bellows Falls, while at Putney the lightning struck a tree. Some hail also fell.

Charles Dowe, alias Charles Whitlock, escaped from the prison at Windsor Monday night. Dowe is described as being 20 years old, five feet, nine inches tall, weighs 151 pounds, has gray eyes, light brown hair and medium complexion. He wore khaki trousers and a gray shirt at the time of his escape.

The district highway supervisors have sent to the state commissioner, reports on further road repairs that are being made. These include in Roxbury, 30 rods; Plainfield, a bridge; Warren, on the Granville road, 30 rods; Bennington, road construction for two blocks; Woodford, a bridge; Middlesex, two miles of not properly maintained road.

Perry Chase, a life-long resident of East Fairlee and known as the "sugar king" of Vermont, died Sunday, after a year's illness. Mr. Chase received first prize for his maple sugar exhibit at the World's fair in St. Louis. Another thing which set Mr. Chase apart from other men was his perfect resemblance to the imaginary "Uncle Sam," and in his home town he was generally known by that name.

On the Mary Fletcher hospital grounds in Burlington this week H. F. Bohannon and Billy Doane located and cut down, after permission had been granted, a tree which contained 150 pounds of honey. Some of it was clover, some flower and some buckwheat, and the clover was especially good. About one-half of it will have to be melted and used as strained honey. The tree, which was an old elm, measured five feet across its base.

O. S. Nichols of Essex has entered in county court an action to recover the sum of $3,547.46, with interest on this amount from May 25, 1920, from E. H. Clarke of New York City. According to the specifications, the amount named above is the balance due to plaintiff from the defendant for building the defendant's residence at Richmond during the time from September 27, 1919, to May 25, 1920. The defendant's property has been attached to the extent of $5,000. The Richmond Saving Bank & Trust Co. is named as trustee in the suit.

MONTPELIER GIRL MARRIED.

Della Edith Lillie Bride of Paul P. Bristol of Burlington.

Burlington, Sept. 3.—In the presence of immediate relatives and neighboring campers, on the front porch of the bride's summer home at Thompson's point, a quiet wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, when Miss Della Edith Lillie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean K. Lillie of Montpelier, was united in marriage to Paul P. Bristol of this city. Rev. H. C. Newell, pastor of the Congregational church at Middlebury, performed the ceremony, the double ring service being used. The couple were unattended. The porch was prettily decorated with ferns, cut flowers and golden glow. The bride wore a blue traveling suit, with hat to match.

Following the ceremony, a buffet lunch was served at the bride's summer cottage, after which Mr. and Mrs. Bristol left on a wedding trip to Syracuse, Buffalo and Niagara Falls. At the Vergennes depot, where they took the train, the couple were met by friends from Burlington, who presented the bride with a bouquet of flowers.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Bristol will make their home at 120 Colchester avenue. The many beautiful gifts presented to them included gold, silver, cut glass and linen.

The bride is a graduate of Montpelier high school in the class of 1918, and is one of the popular young ladies among the summer colony at Thompson's point, where she has spent a number of summers. The groom is a graduate of Middlebury high school in the class of 1916, and has been connected with the Burlington Savings bank for about two years. He is at present a teller in that institution.

V. N. G. Officers Commended.

H. T. Johnson, assistant general, has received from General E. R. Edwards, who on Wednesday retired as the commanding officer of the northeastern department, commendation of two of the officers in the Vermont National Guard. These are Capt. Leonard F. Wing of Co. A, Rutland, and Capt. Stewart Cheney of Co. D, St. Johnsbury, in which the officer who was detailed to make the annual inspection of the guards at Camp Devens, referred to their work as showing "exceptional ability" in the performance of duties as commanding officer and the company is mentioned. The figures on the annual muster expenses are being compiled. The state will pay about $3,000 but the majority portion is paid by the federal government.

POST MILLS

The Sunday school picnic at the summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jenkins Saturday afternoon was much enjoyed by the children. Lively games were played, two Bible stories were dramatized and an abundance of lemonade and eatables were served.

Haven Southworth, Robert Allen, Harold Chamberlin, Arthur Parker and Frank Parker went on a camping trip over Sunday, Aug. 29, led by Scoutmaster Arthur H. Sargent. The troop attended public worship at West Fairlee Center. Mr. Sargent returned to Post Mills for the Sunday morning service and joined the boys at the close of the afternoon service at West Fairlee Center.

At a community meeting, held Monday evening, Aug. 30, reports of the financial return of Post Mills fair were given and it was decided to hold the next fair Wednesday, Aug. 17, 1921. An executive committee of three, to have full charge, was elected, as follows: Chairman, Dr. L. B. Allen, second member, Charles A. Powell, third, Rev. Arthur H. Sargent.

One of the most severe droughts known in this region for many years was broken Sunday by a rain that revived the withering crops in fields and gardens.

Says Every Railroad Man Should Read This

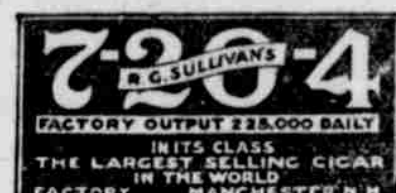

Peterson's Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y. Dear Sir: I was afflicted with what the doctors said was Varicose Ulcers, and up until about five weeks ago I have been treating them for about a year and five months. With all the treatments that were prescribed to me by several doctors I received little benefit, and they kept spreading and gave me much distress and caused me to quit my work. I was induced by a brother-in-law to try Peterson's Ointment, and after I had used two boxes I saw wonderful results. You can tell suffering ones troubled with ugly, painful and horrid ulcers that your Ointment is a cure for them when everything else fails, as I have tried about everything. Thanking you many times over I am, your happy friend, Chas. J. Heger, Battle Creek, Mich., 42 Glenwood Avenue, January 12, 1919.

"I know and dozens of people write me," says Peterson of Buffalo. "That Peterson's Ointment also cures eczema, old sores, salt rheum, piles and all skin diseases, and all druggists sell a big box for 35 cents." Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.
